

Architectural project information and site analysis. Includes a grid of small images and text blocks detailing project goals, site conditions, and environmental impact studies.

Architectural drawings including floor plans, sections, and elevations. The main floor plan shows a large, curved terminal building with multiple levels and a central concourse. The drawings are accompanied by detailed technical specifications and annotations.

